Note:

1. The mere success in the Examination shall not confer any right to appointment and no candidate shall be appointed to the post unless the Government is satisfied, after such inquiries as may be considered unnecessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the post.

2. The order of preference for the post indicated by the candidates shall not confirm any right for appointment to these posts. Having regard to the rank in the order of merit and the number of posts available, the preference given by the candidate shall be considered by the Govt. at the time of his/her appointment.

3. Where a candidate has not given preference for the post, or the candidate has given preference only for a few posts, and the number of posts for which h/she has given preference are not available to accommodate the candidate as per his/her preference, such candidate shall be considered for appointment to any of the remaining posts after the process of appointment of other candidates, who have given preference for all these scheduled posts, is completed.
